

STANDPOINT

Attorneys & advocates against domestic & sexual violence

Standpoint is pleased to announce our next

Executive Director

Thi Synavone

Please join the Standpoint Board of Directors in welcoming Thi Synavone as our next

effective July 1st, 2023

Thi has been with the organization since 2017. Through Thi's time as Director of Organizational and Staff Development we have seen significant growth in the areas of Organizational Policy, Human Resources and meaningful engagement of staff and communities across the state of Minnesota in Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Practices. Thi has worked in the domestic and sexual violence field for over 20 years. She brings extensive experience and knowledge providing advocacy to survivors, management of programs, coordination of events and the ability to promote awareness about domestic and sexual violence. Thi is also a skilled training facilitator for Standpoint with focus areas of victimization of immigrant and refugee populations. Her leadership extends into the movement and out into communities through mentoring and training BIPOC advocates to move into leadership positions. Thi graduated from the California Coalition Against Sexual Assault's (CALCASA) Leadership Education and Advancement for Professionals (LEAP) in 2015 and has continued to train nationally about Leadership Development for Women of Color. Thi is a graduate from Augsburg College with a dual major in Political Science and Communications and also has a Master's in Public and Nonprofit Administration from Metropolitan State University. We look forward to our continued valued partnership and work with you and our communities. We are excited to work with Thi as she moves Standpoint into the next chapter, and as we all continue to promote justice for domestic and sexual violence victims.

In Solidarity,
